

STONEHAM HIGH SCHOOL GRADE ENGLISH
REQUIRED SUMMER READING LIST 2018

GRADE 12
Levels: Inten/Comp/Trans
A.P. Lit—see separate list

This list reflects options for the core senior electives Women's Literature, Global Literature, Shakespeare, and The Hero's Quest, as well as the traditional, British Literature year-long class. Many of these books are linked to more than one course. Because not everyone will definitely know which class they will be taking in September, choose from any of the books on this list regardless of the classes you signed up for or may be assigned.

Intensive, Comprehensive, and Transitional: You are required to read at least one book. Reading one, some, or all of these will help participate in introductory discussions. You do not have to take notes, but you are welcome to do so. Within in the first two weeks of school, you will participate in a Socratic discussion and write an in-class journal. These assessments will count as a quiz grade.

If you don't read a book on this list, you may reference other books, blogs or articles you have read, or you may refer to historical, personal, or current events for the discussion and journal assignment; in this case, the highest possible grade will be a 75. Books may be ordered from The Book Oasis on Main Street or checked out from the Stoneham Public Library.

Children of Blood and Bone by Tomi Adeyemi. Zélie Adebola remembers when the soil hummed with magic. Burners ignited flames, Tiders beckoned waves, and Zélie's Reaper mother summoned forth souls. But everything changed the night magic disappeared. Under the orders of a ruthless king, maji were targeted and killed, leaving Zélie without a mother and her people without hope. Now, Zélie has one chance to bring back magic and strike against the monarchy. With the help of a rogue princess, Zélie must outwit and outrun the crown prince, who is hell-bent on eradicating magic for good. Fantasy.

The Lightless Sky by Gulwali Passarlay A gripping, inspiring, and eye-opening memoir of fortitude and survival—of a twelve-year-old boy's traumatic flight from Afghanistan to the West—that puts a face to one of the most shocking and devastating humanitarian crises of our time. Memoir.

Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates. In a letter to his adolescent son, Coates looks at our nation's history and current crisis around the idea of 'race' that most heavily impacts black women and men—exploited through slavery and segregation, and, today, threatened, locked up, and murdered out of all proportion. What is it like to inhabit a black body and find a way to live within it? And how can we all honestly reckon with this history and free ourselves from its burden? Memoir.

The Nazi Hunters: How a Team of Spies and Survivors Captured the World's Most Notorious Nazi by Neal Bascomb. In 1945, at the end of World War II, Adolf Eichmann, the boss for the Nazis' Final Solution, walked into the German mountains and vanished. Sixteen years later, an elite team of spies captured him at a bus stop in Argentina and smuggled him to Israel, resulting in one of the century's most important trials. A blind Argentinean and his teenage daughter put themselves at great risk to help. Nonfiction.

Girl at War by Sara Novic. Ana is 10 years old living in Croatia when the war in Yugoslavia impacts her life in the most horrible ways imaginable. Flashbacks add to the complexity of this text. Mature readers. Fiction

The Last Kingdom by Bernard Cornwell.. In the middle years of the ninth-century, the fierce Danes stormed onto British soil, hungry for spoils and conquest. Kingdom after kingdom fell to the ruthless invaders until only one realm remained. Suddenly the fate of all England—and the course of history—depended upon one man, one king. Mature. Historical fiction.

The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah. This is the epic story of two sisters, separated by years and experience, by ideals, passion and circumstance, each embarking on her own dangerous path toward survival, love, and freedom in German-occupied, war-torn France in WWII--a heartbreakingly beautiful novel that celebrates the resilience of the human spirit and the durability of women. Historical fiction.
