

The 2020 Census will NOT ask someone:

- their citizenship status
- their Social Security number
- for money or donations
- anything on behalf of a political party
- for bank or credit card account numbers

The 2020 Census will ask:

- how many people are living or staying at your home on April 1, 2020 and whether the home is owned or rented
- the name, sex, age, race of each person in your home
- whether a person in your home is of Hispanic, Latino, or Spanish origin
- about the relationship of each person in your home

The 2020 Census will NOT ask someone:

- their citizenship status
- their Social Security number
- for money or donations
- anything on behalf of a political party
- for bank or credit card account numbers

The 2020 Census will ask:

- how many people are living or staying at your home on April 1, 2020 and whether the home is owned or rented
- the name, sex, age, race of each person in your home
- whether a person in your home is of Hispanic, Latino, or Spanish origin
- about the relationship of each person in your home

The 2020 Census will NOT ask someone:

- their citizenship status
- their Social Security number
- for money or donations
- anything on behalf of a political party
- for bank or credit card account numbers

The 2020 Census will ask:

- how many people are living or staying at your home on April 1, 2020 and whether the home is owned or rented
- the name, sex, age, race of each person in your home
- whether a person in your home is of Hispanic, Latino, or Spanish origin
- about the relationship of each person in your home

-Respond via phone or online. The Library has public computers you can use, even if you do not have a library card!

-Households that have not responded will receive mail reminders from the Census Bureau and will eventually receive a paper questionnaire.

-Then the Census Bureau will follow up in person with all households that do not respond.

-Make sure to count every person in your household, including all children.

-The Federal Census is not the same as the Town Census. It is important to answer both.

-Your information will be kept private. Census data is confidential according to Title 13 of the US Code.

-Many Town Departments including the Library receive funding based on population, so it is vital to count everyone!

-Respond via phone or online. The Library has public computers you can use, even if you do not have a library card!

-Households that have not responded will receive mail reminders from the Census Bureau and will eventually receive a paper questionnaire.

-Then the Census Bureau will follow up in person with all households that do not respond.

-Make sure to count every person in your household, including all children.

-The Federal Census is not the same as the Town Census. It is important to answer both.

-Your information will be kept private. Census data is confidential according to Title 13 of the US Code.

-Many Town Departments including the Library receive funding based on population, so it is vital to count everyone!

-Respond via phone or online. The Library has public computers you can use, even if you do not have a library card!

-Households that have not responded will receive mail reminders from the Census Bureau and will eventually receive a paper questionnaire.

-Then the Census Bureau will follow up in person with all households that do not respond.

-Make sure to count every person in your household, including all children.

-The Federal Census is not the same as the Town Census. It is important to answer both.

-Your information will be kept private. Census data is confidential according to Title 13 of the US Code.

-Many Town Departments including the Library receive funding based on population, so it is vital to count everyone!

