

STONEHAM HIGH SCHOOL SUMMER READING LIST 2023

GRADE 12

A.P. Lang & A.P. Lit—you will be invited to a Google Classroom

Reading and rereading is fun and helps improve fluency and comprehension! Summer reading is required; this list offers suggestions, but feel free to read a book that is not on this list and explore other books, genres, and authors. Within the first three weeks of school, students will be offered a menu of options to connect their book to the Driving Question. If a student does not read any book of their choice, they will still participate in the menu of options by discussing current, historical, or personal events that tie into the DQ. The highest possible grade would be a C.

You can purchase books from our favorite local bookstore, The Book Oasis, on Main Street (in-store and curbside pickup available). Click here for their website.	You can also check books out from the Stoneham Public Library. Click the title of each book to go to the library catalog where you can place a hold. Click here to see a video introducing Rachel, the librarian at the SPL.

Mature reader Mystery/Fiction.

The Nazi Hunters: How a Team of Spies and Survivors Captured the World's Most Notorious Nazi by Neal Bascomb. In 1945, at the end of World War II, Adolf Eichmann, the boss for the Nazis' Final Solution, walked into the German mountains and vanished. Sixteen years later, an elite team of spies captured him at a bus stop in Argentina and smuggled him to Israel, resulting in one of the century's most important trials. A blind Argentinean and his teenage daughter put themselves at great risk to help. Nonfiction.

Girl at War by Sara Novic. Ana is 10 years old living in Croatia when the war in Yugoslavia impacts her life in the most horrible ways imaginable. Flashbacks add to the complexity of this text. Sensitive topics. Mature readers. Fiction.

The Last Kingdom by Bernard Cornwell. In the middle years of the ninth-century, the fierce Danes stormed onto British soil, hungry for spoils and conquest. Kingdom after kingdom fell to the ruthless invaders until only one realm remained. Suddenly the fate of all England—and the course of history—depended upon one man, one king. Mature. Historical fiction.

The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah. This is the epic story of two sisters, separated by years and experience, by ideals, passion and circumstance, each embarking on her own dangerous path toward survival, love, and freedom in German-occupied, war-torn France in WWII--a heartbreakingly beautiful novel that celebrates the resilience of the human spirit and the durability of women. Historical fiction.
